Beloved Children of Light:

I cannot urge you too strongly to contemplate with all your great capacity the actual Nature that makes up the Father of all Life; His feelings toward all His children; and the actual desire and design of His Being for the Earth and all upon and within it.

This has formed the ecstasy of every saint who has proceeded beyond the ken of mortal mind and been unified with the God-Nature - even for an instant, in that exultation of consciousness, radiation and feeling. To put on the God-Nature is as easy and as simple as it is to don the garments of the external fashion realm.

To live, exemplifying the God-Nature in your thought and feeling, in contact with and conduct of life, is to be free instantly from the human nature, its pressures, actions and reactions, its limitations, in yourself and others. It is to enter and abide in the Kingdom of Heaven, which is the Way by which We proceeded and by which We maintain Our Happiness Supreme. There is no external happiness until the outer nature has become the God-Nature in regard to all Life, and that is the ONENESS toward which all consciously or unconsciously aspire.

When the Beloved Mary is spoken of as the Mother Aspect of the Deity, it is because Her Nature has become ONE with the Mother Element of the Eternal Father of all Life. Jesus is ONE in Nature with the Son,, and every Being who represents a God or Goddess, or any particular Virtue has become ONE with that facet of the God-Nature, and although We share the whole, that is the predominant characteristic of Our individual Being.

The early Christians, as well as some of the very devotional ones of today patterned their lives on the very simple question of what Jesus would do if placed in the same circumstances as they found themselves. Earnestly such individuals ask for His illumination and feeling, and then try to the best of their ability and capacity to contact His feelings and reactions according to His possible activity if He were in that circumstance.

Now all individuals are not equally capable of understanding the NATURE of the Master Jesus, nor, intellectually, of judging what He would do under all circumstances, but every desire within the heart to act and react as He would, brings through it a grace and perfection and blessing, and an intuitional pressure from Jesus which does direct the life course more and more in the Way of the Master. The early Christians, with great success, followed this simple Way of Life and became so imbued with the Nature of their Master that they took on the luminosity of flesh, the brilliance of consciousness, the love of heart, and even the capacity, in His Name, to heal and set life free. It is worth the time and thought of the chelas of the Master to begin such a Holy practice, and in their daily lives see what beneficent results will ensue, not only in their own peace of mind, but in the kindly unfoldment of those around them.

So I bless you, little children, in your endeavors, as you walk - sometimes stumbling - upon the same Path that We travelled so long ago.

Blessings and Love,

MAHA CHOHAN

Maha Chohan, blaze through us Thy Comfort Flame today;
And let all the life we contact Its Presence feel we pray.
May God's pure Love flow from us to raise
and heal and bless;
And all the life we're using be charged with humbleness.

Oh, make and keep us happy - in sunshine and
in shade;
Help us e'er to keep on praying 'til debts to life are paid.
We ask that through our hands we may bring release from pain;
And from Thine own great Presence draw Faith in God again.

Oh, make and keep us earnest - in every way sincere;
And to all convey the feeling that God is very near -
His Holy Light expressing through heart and head and hand;
And bringing all life Comfort from Thee,
Maha Chohan.

Beloved Children of God:

The glorious white robe of the Master Jesus is a constant reminder to the initiate and the aspirant that the Life and Energy of his own being may be woven, and IS woven, at every moment into the vehicles through which his soul must function and achieve, at last, everlasting Peace.

'To him that overcometh shall be given a white garment'. This garment is woven by the Presence into the substance of the bodies and aura of the evolving soul's consciousness when the attention of the heart is centered on the Spiritual Center from whence all blessings truly flow.

The aura around the lifestream consists of a constantly moving sea of electrons passing outward, driven by thought and feeling, and returning inward on the return course of their circular journey to find oneness in the heart of their creator. The radiation from the Presence, however, is vertical, and passes downward through the bodies, and then completes the circle back into the Presence. So you have the directive activity of the lifestream going out in a horizontal line, tieing you to the manifestation of Earth, and the more ephemeral electronic circuit coming from the Presence, and made up only of those directed thoughts and feelings which turn toward the Source.

As the greatest amount of the energy of the lifestream is directed into the affairs of the
